Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:
Enriching seniors' lives through advocacy, diverse programming, and wellness and nutrition opportunities.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 78,339 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 38,365)
Nutrition: Seniors West of the Tetons offers congregate lunches four days a week in the Senior Community Center and delivers five meals a week to homebound seniors. Our home meals include a weekly bag of food basics provided by the Teton Valley Food Pantry. We also serve as a distribution site for the Community Resource Center's Food Rescue Program and distribute food boxes for seniors through the Idaho Food Bank. Congregate lunch service resumed in June 2022 after pandemic restrictions were lifted or modified to allow indoor gatherings. Prior to the pandemic, the congregate lunch program had been floundering. At its 2021 planning retreat, the Board endorsed allotting significant resources to developing a thriving and vital in-house lunch program when conditions allowed. Thus, when the congregate lunch program resumed in June 2022, it was with a new chef, an upgraded menu, and enhanced facilities that made the Senior Community Center a welcoming place to enjoy a meal with friends. In the weeks following the re-opening, attendance averaged in the 20s and has steadily increased into the 30s. We regularly have lunches that attract more than 50 and special event lunches that attract as many as 100, which is our maximum capacity. Congregate lunches are open to non-seniors, and we have been pleased to see city workers, librarians, business people and families with children

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 3,000 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 0)
Wellness: Seven hours of fitness programing, including Tai Chi (2 hours), Yoga (1 hour), and Fit and Fall Proof (4 hours), are offered each week. Other fitness programs, including Qi Gong, Akai, and rhythmic drumming, is offered on a bi-weekly or monthly basis. In addition, we host clinics for foot care, blood pressure monitoring, vaccinations, and health screenings. Our Healthy Seniors program brings in medical professionals to discuss issues like mental health, diabetes prevention and management, and heart health. All wellness programs are offered free of charge, though some volunteer instructors accept small donations. Fit and Fall Proof is sponsored by the Idaho Department of Public Health, which offers training and material support to volunteer instructors recruited by Seniors West of the Tetons. Following the resumption of a regular activity schedule in June, approximately 50 seniors participated in fitness and wellness activities each week. As with the lunch program, seniors highly value the social interactions that these wellness activities provide. Since all of these programs are offered by volunteers, the only cost to SWOT is an estimated facility fee for utilities and other facility costs.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 78,694 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 0)
Diverse Programming: Throughout the pandemic, SWOT continued to offer programming, though at a reduced level and with restrictions. We hired a program coordinator in June 2021. Following the second wave of pandemic restrictions, which ended in June 2022, her role was expanded to full time. Working with our Executive Director, she has developed a regular program of recreational activities, discussion forums, excursions, and entertainment events. Prior to the pandemic, the facility was empty most afternoons and evenings. Now, there are recreational activities (bridge, mah jong, cribbage, bingo) almost every afternoon. There are regular service and educational forums and there are entertainments, like the popular Pizza and a Movie series, that spill into the evening hours. Facility Enhancement: Much of this development in programming is related to changes we have made in our facility. We have added high-quality A/V equipment and upgraded our dining service. These changes allow us to offer a wider variety of events and programs, which supports our conception of the Senior Community Center as a genuine community center rather than just a dining room. In December 2022, we started remodeling an under-utilized lounge space in the main room to

The review was presented to the Board at its January meeting where it determined compensation for the 2023 year.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

joining our seniors for lunch. Throughout the pandemic closures, SWOT offered home delivered meals to homebound seniors. While following CDC guidelines for contact with vulnerable seniors, home-delivery volunteers were still able to check on the well-being of isolated seniors and provide a welcome social contact. Even though pandemic restrictions have eased, SWOT continues to provide this home-delivery service. We currently deliver meals to 15-20 seniors each week. Both the congregate and the home-delivery programs are supported by donations and the Eastern Idaho Community Action Project.

Third Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

become a meeting and work room. This will allow services like our Tech Time and VITA tax preparation programs to operate while activities are going on in the main room and it provides a more congenial location for small group discussions, like Death Cafe.

Other Program Services Accomplishments

Activity Code	Description	Expense	Grants	Revenue
	Advocacy, Communication and Outreach: Seniors West of the Tetons partners with our regional Area Agency on Aging to ensure services are available to keep seniors in their homes. We provide assistance with Medicare and other health insurance, federal and state taxes, access to health care, and general referrals to other services. This advocacy is channeled through our monthly print newsletter, which is mailed to over 500 seniors and community members, and regular online news updates. Our website and social media keep seniors informed about community happenings, senior center events and issues of concern to seniors, like Medicare enrollment and tax fraud. Much of this communication and outreach activity is supported by our growing data system, which allows us to make frequent and targeted contacts with seniors and to link seniors directly with services and programs of interest. Our volunteers constitute another crucial component in our advocacy and communication strategy. Whether it is a home-delivered meal, fitness class or event, it is likely that a volunteer will be the point of contact between the organization and the client. The onset of the Covid pandemic brought a surge of volunteers anxious to be of service. Fortunately, we've been able to channel this desire to serve into a desire to advocate.	2,669		0
	Hosting. In the last two years, SWOT has been able to attract services from other agencies, organizations and individuals. These arrangements have proven mutually beneficial. The service provider gets a highly functional space and direct access to the clients they are trying to serve. And SWOT is able to offer in-house programming that would be beyond its means if acting independently. In Spring 2022, SWOT became a host sponsor of Teton Valley Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA), a volunteer program funded by the IRS that offers free Federal and state tax preparation and e-filing to low and moderate income taxpayers. These services are provided by IRS-certified volunteers. And, in Fall 2022, SWOT began hosting counselors from the state-sponsored Senior Health Insurance Benefits Advisors (SHIBA) which offers assistance with Medicare enrollments and claims. Services like VITA and SHIBA often struggle to find appropriate facilities for their operations. The Senior Community Center with its recent enhancement meets their needs well. The large dining room with its AV equipment works well for presentations and it has proven to be a highly functional waiting area, where clients can fill out forms and organize documents prior to their interview. The workroom, which became operational just in time for the 2023 tax season, offers the privacy and freedom from distractions necessary for interviews and work sessions with clients and it offers secure internet access, which is essential to these services. An added benefit of locating these services in the Senior Community Center is the opportunity for drop-in contacts. The SHIBA program, for instance, schedules a monthly drop-in session during a Thursday lunch and it reports several highly significant issues, such as one client who enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan that did not offer in-network services in Teton Valley, that were discovered and addressed from a lunchtime question. Having these services available in a familiar, face-to-face setting is a tremendous benefit to Teton Valley seniors, especially considering how limited and expensive equivalent professional services are in our area. We are also seeing a number of community organizations offering events in the Senior Community Center. Although not all of these are directly aimed at seniors, seniors often make up the bulk of the audience. A recent community forum that brought in a wildlife biologist to talk about living with bears attracted a capacity audience, approximately 60% of which were seniors. While the Senior Community Center has always been available on a rental basis to outside organizations, this new model of event is more of a partnership arrangement, where SWOT provides the facility set-up and technical support and assists with advertising, outreach, and management and the event organizer focuses on the event itself. Again, SWOT is making use of the systems and resources it has built in the last five years to leverage programs and services that we could	1,385	0	0
